[4] Grandville and Walker changed to District Court January, 1981. As of June 30, 1981, six Municipal Courts remained.

*The Michigan Legislature passed legislation (Public Acts 438-443 of 1980) to implement the first phase of state financing for trial courts and to reorganize the Wayne County/Detroit courts. The initial phase began September 1, 1981 with the administrative merger of Wayne County Circuit Court and Recorder's Court - Criminal Division and the establishment of the 36th District Court in the City of Detroit. The 36th District Court was created by transferring the employees and functions of the abolished Common Pleas Court, and the Traffic and Ordinance Division and District Court jurisdiction of Recorder's Court to the new court.

This new legislation established a State Judicial Council which is the employer of trial court employees paid by the state. Employees working in these courts on August 31, 1981 and those hired thereafter became employees of the Judicial Council.

State of the Judiciary Message
Presented to the Michigan Legislature
April 29, 1981
by
Chief Justice Mary S. Coleman
Michigan Supreme Court

Three years ago, when from this podium I delivered my first State of the Judiciary message, I felt womewhat like a stranger in the legislative atmosphere, this despite many years of having appeared in different capacities. Now, after two years of sharing your struggle over court reorganization, state funding of courts and other judicial matters, I feel today more like an old soldier returning for a battlefield reunion. I appreciate the many problems of state government which have faced you and the careful consideration you have given to the judicial branch.

I have said to you before and we now have proved that the three branches of government working together can realize great -- even history-making -- achievements.

Two days from now, on Friday, the legal profession will focus on observance of Law Day -- in schools, courts and other public forums. For lawyers and judges, it is a time for reflection -- and rejoicing -- over the precious gifts of liberty which are showered on Americans -- liberty that we take too much for granted. And the same liberty which our world neighbors in Poland fervently seek, even at great risk of shedding blood -- their own blood.

Indeed, justice under law -- American style as celebrated on Law Day -- is the fragile heart of liberty. The life blood of a free society is dependent upon its flow to every person within the body of our democracy. You and all of us who identify ourselves with enhancing the excellence of our system of justice may justifiably feel exalted.

As Chief Justice of Michigan's court of last resort, it is part of my responsibilities to try, so far as humanly possible, to avert crises in our courts, to maximize efficient delivery of justice, minimize intrusions from whatever source upon an independent and unbiased judiciary, to be apprised of pending legislation which impacts for better or worse upon the courts and be spokesperson for the Supreme Court.

For many years annual reports to this body by the Chief Justice have tended to focus on success and failure in rendering of fair and speedy justice in Michigan courts -- in other words, the deciding of law cases and the procedures by which they flow throught the courts. After all, that is the primary mission of courts, just as the duty of the Legislature is to decide substantive and public policy questions through the lawmaking process.

Thus, the steep climb in volume of litigation, and measures taken to deal with this upsurge, have been recurrent themes.

Court Administration -- General

The litigation explosion remains a very serious problem. But today, I am going to speak primarily about administration of the Michigan court system, which, of course, is not unrelated.

Administration is a creepy problem, if a pun may be allowed. Starting as an almost negligible problem, it has crept up on the courts, gradually but with doom-like inevitability of death and taxes. It is not yet a monster, but it is taking on those proportions.

To the average judge, administration -- in the pithy phrase of yesterday -- is a "pain in the neck". Administration is not taught in law school. And it is not what propels an attorney ahead in private practice. Last week, all Chief Judges of Michigan courts -- the administrative judges -- were afforded a three-day training session by the educational arm of the Court -- the Michigan Judicial Institute. (I would add that it is foremost in the country.)

Administration takes on an added dimension when ultimate authority is vested collectively in a seven-member judicial body. This is a little bit like giving seven generals joint command of an army. Fortunately, the present seven Justices work in admirable harmony, especially considering that each of us is an elected public official to a collegial court and each cherishes independence. However, much time and patience is required of each of us.

In 1963, the state Constitution imposed on the Supreme Court the duty of administering Michigan's roughly 240 courts as a cohesive system. The mandate is "One Court of Justice".

The Supreme Court of the admittedly small state of Vermont, before unification of courts there in the mid-1970's, managed with one full-time and one part-time employee. In Michigan, likewise, before 1963 unification, we had only a handful of employees. Until 1953, the Clerk of the Supreme Court performed administrative chores as an incident to his principal duties of record-keeping. There was no "administrator" as such.

But all this has changed now. Rapidly multiplying caseloads, new technology, increases in judges and court staff, unionization, expanded concepts -- often federally imposed -- of due process and individual rights -- all these, and other influences, have translated into administrative headaches affecting some 550 judges and 8000 judicial employees.

State Funding/Court Reorganization

No one here needs reminding of the energies, last year and in 1979, that were expended toward legislation for eventual state financing of courts. Commencing in part with reorganization in Wayne County/Detroit to conform in most respects with the remainder of the state, more detailed attention by more people was devoted to this legislation than many here like to remember.

However, some of you may not be aware of the landmark achievement this represented -- whatever its imperfections -- in historical terms. Recently in an old scrapbook, I came across a newspaper clipping from 37 years ago telling of a reform proposal for a "metropolitan court" in Detroit. The article described a plan urged by the Detroit Bar Association, which in some major respects is a carbon copy of Public Act 438 of 1980, passed last December. The article said that even before that time -- 1954 -- similar proposals had twice failed in the Legislature, so the breakthrough late last year was remarkable. We are committed to do all in our power to realize the full potential of the opportunity afforded the state.

What happened in December is only a beginning. Fulfillment of its promise depends on wise future administrative steps and successive annual financial commitments still to be confirmed.

State Judicial Council

In this connection, I urged your sympathetic support -- including financial backing -- of the newly created State Judicial Council. The Council was designed to become the legal employer of all probate, district and circuit court personnel in the state's 83 counties.

The Council's role is crucial to success of the state financing concept, with the promise it carries of easing the crushing financial burdens now borne by counties. If the Council fails, the entire concept is endangered. Those serving on the Council face the staggering goal of building the foundation for a wholly new concept of judicial employment encompassing eventually the entire state and almost simultaneously taking all action necessary to the transfer of 1000 employees in Wayne County/Detroit from local to state payrolls by September 1 of this year.

It scarcely needs saying, given the dire financial straits of Detroit and Wayne County, that the forthcoming wage negotiations entrusted to the Council are a matter of great sensitivity. It is my understanding that there are 12 bargaining units in the three courts affected.

The Council-employer on the one hand, and the employee groups on the other, like the wise and courageous navigator of mythology, together must chart a course between the Scylla of reckless greed and Charybdis of repression. I suppose that "fairness" is the guiding star. Michigan will be ill served by financial prostration of her greatest metropolis or by devastating disruptions in the machinery of justice.

The way ahead is hazardous, but challenging. Partly, this is because what lies ahead is the testing of a new, untried mechanism, comparable to a shakedown cruise for a naval vessel of radically new and sophisticated design.

I fervently hope the new design -- hammered out by the men and women under this very roof -- I fervently hope it succeeds. I hope that the employees concerned will be inspired to a sense of pride and cooperation in this rare opportunity and that all will be proud to be identified with this landmark move. I pledge my best efforts to make it work, and solicit yours.

Apart from the Judicial Council's role, the transition in Wayne County involves myriad administrative decisions -- from suitably housing the reorganized courts, to devising legal forms, to sorting seniority and pension rights, to redefining work flow, reviewing computer programs, leasing equipment, ordering supplies, and the like.

This phase of administration falls temporarily into a province assigned to my colleague, Justice James L. Ryan. In addition to his normal adjudication duties, Justice Ryan is directing a small staff from a newly opened office in Detroit -- incidentally, requiring no anticipated new state funds -- in day-to-day monitoring of such adjustments.

Traffic Courts

On another more conventional front of administration, I invite your attention to vigorous enforcement campaigns against scofflaw motorists in some outstate cities and in Detroit. Repeat violators of the traffic laws who cynically disregard violation notices are being tracked down and required to pay. The result is increased respect for, and observance of, the law and significant revenue gains for local governments, especially for Detroit. One key to the new program was the Legislature's agreement last year to allow a hold-up of renewal of a driver's license until the licensee explained away or paid any accumulation of unpaid vehicle violation summonses. Thus, apart from other considerations, we have here an example of effective cooperation by the judicial and legislative branches.

Incidentally, revenue-generating aspects of the crackdown in Detroit are considerable. Credible estimates of the sum which will be realized this year run into the millions of dollars -- in part because of a huge backlog of long past due tickets. We ordinarily do not -- and should not -- look to judicial service to pay its own way, any more than fire and police service should be billed exclusively to its direct beneficiaries. And yet, a metropolitan traffic court may be viewed as an exception to this rule. And so what is going on in Detroit is expected to alleviate the financial burdens of that beleagured city in a modest way. Transfer to the new 36th District Court should be made smoother by cleaning up some of the long-standing problems.

Sentencing Guidelines

My colleague, Justice Blair Moody, has supervised an important administrative project directed toward improving fairness in sentencing. In a word, the goal is equal punishment for equal crimes for persons of similar histories. A trial judge ordinarily can exercise wide discretion in sentencing. For example, he/she may impose a penitentiary term for embezzlement, or grant probation, depending on circumstances of the crime and his perceptions about the offender. Justice Moody's special advisory committee, after a two-year study, devised a standarized scale for assessing variables in each class of offense -- a point system of sorts. The new approach is being tested right now by judges in three representative jurisdictions, one in Detroit and two outstate. If results of the pilot program warrant, the sentencing guidelines as possibly modified by experience may be applied statewide. For good cause, a judge would be free to impose a more lenient or more severe - sentence than the norm. He/she would be obliged to explain the reasons on the record.

There is another type of legal service often provided at government expense which merits your thoughful attention and, in my judgment, corrective action. I am speaking of mental health commitments. While understanding the admirable goals of the present legislatively provided commitment procedure, I find that in practice it is unnecessarily cumbersome, costly and administratively burdensome. I am told that because of this fact plus the extreme threshold for institutional treatment, some persons who require psychiatric treatment end up in jail instead. If this is true, it is a cruel miscarriage of public policy. Whatever an investigation of those facts may reveal, needed protection to mentally ill individuals against arbitrary confinement in a mental facility can be more efficiently and less expensively provided. Wayne County Chief Probate Judge Joseph Pernick is working with others experienced in this field to perfect proposed modification of the mental health code. Knowing your sincere interest in the plight of the mentally ill, I am certain you will give their proposal sympathetic consideration.

Finances

As many of you know, the Supreme Court will have reduced its expenditures by about $1,000,000 this fiscal year from the relatively small portion of the budget over which it has any control. (This does not include JDC which already is 14 persons short from previous cuts.) We have terminated 9 people in the central SCAO Office, 1 in the Finance Office, closed two Regional Offices and terminated the employees, have had the same payless holidays as Civil Service and have cut out all feasible non-personnel costs. Services are seriously curtailed, but there is some good to come of this soul-searching necessity. We now are re-examining every past and present service and the need for perhaps different kinds of future services in this changing world. Self-examination is healthy.

Also relating to the question of controlling expense, I recommend careful review by the Legislature of the statutory provisions for indigent legal services in criminal appeals. I agree with Senator Guastello and undoubtedly some others of you, who advocate closer screening of defendants for actual inability to pay, and secondly, a recoupment clause requiring repayment by those who receive aid and later become financially able to reimburse. I believe this can be done without diminishing the right to governement assistance for those who genuinely need it.

Another critical area, the proliferation of cases in the Court of Appeals -- over 6000 this year -- leads me to suggest a careful scrutiny of pending legislation as to all appeals of right and possible review of statutes pertaining to guilty plea appeals which now constitute 24% of the Court of Appeals caseload. The excellent administration of Chief Judge Danhof is largely responsible for keeping the Court afloat in the present sea of appeals as of right. Soon, however, we must address the problem, hopefully short of providing more judges, offices, equipment and other expensive means.

Immunity

It is said that the Supreme Court intrudes, from time to time, into the Legislature's domain of defining public policy.

The Court's domain, of course, is limited constitutionally. Its proper role is to decide controversies. Applying the law in a factual setting, occasionally, this means determining whether a law, or provision of law, lies outside the borders of constitutionality. More often, it means interpreting the law. Trying to sort out ambiguous, or conflicting passages in the law, or apparent omissions. The goal is to do so fairly, sensibly and independently -- unswayed by bias or public clamor.

We all know that at times a hazy line divides your territory -- the legislative -- from ours -- the judicial. This frontier, this no man's land, can become exceedingly troublesome. This is apt to occur when the Legislature, facing a politically volatile issue, fails clearly to spell out public policy -- perhaps through stalemate, as happened in workmen's comp through the 1970s -- or for other reason. Then an aggrieved party, frustrated at the legislative portal, knocks at the door of the Court, seeking relief. Eventually our Court is asked to rule on specific facts of a specific case, lacking legislative guidance. Whatever our decision, it may be said to suffer the taint of judicial lawmaking, that is, unless we abdicate our responsibilities to decide a legitimate dispute.

When this happens, it is good neither for you nor for us. Your ranks are made up of partisans, appropriately sensitive to constituents and interest groups, and quick to respond to the shifting winds of public sentiment. Our duty is to stand detached from these sometimes fickle public attitudes, responsible only to relatively fixed constitutional imperatives.

In this connection and in order to correct one very troubling defect in the laws, I renew a 1979 recommendation for a special legislative study of the matter of governmental immunity. How to respond to tort claims against government agencies presents a maze that baffles the courts, confined to a case-by-case format of decision-making, and cries out for a legislative determination of policy.

Cities and counties face growing costs in judgments for damages arising from employee mistakes or misconduct. I am sure you will hear more about this problem from representatives of these school districts and units of government, if indeed you have not already heard from them. Some have already complained to legislators who have complained to me. The financial implications of liability are explosive.

Crime

On another subject, there is little doubt that criminal violence poses perplexing problems for judges and legislators alike.

There is nothing new in official concern for the fundamental right of our citizens to be secure in their persons and property. This ancient problem troubled Ezekiel when some 2500 years ago he wrote: "The land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence." (Ezekiel 7:23).

Recurring flareups of violence and, in particular, the recent attempt on President Reagan's life, have kindled much debate about what is amiss. Regrettably, some misguided persons have pointed a finger of blame at the courts. It is obvious that crime does not spring from the criminal law process. Its roots are deep in sociological, psychological and economic causes, including tragic crumbling of restraints formerly imposed by the family, neighborhood and church. This disease is societal. Judges can no more control it in the courts alone than doctors can eliminate biological disease in the operating room.

Friend of the Court

The societal disease just mentioned busies the courts, as it does the Legislature, with reflected matters other than violent crime. It has transformed the Office of Friend of the Court, once a minor appendage, into a vital arm of the court system. I will welcome an opportunity to work with the Legislature in this increasingly important area, which also is of keen interest to the counties and social service agencies. Some of you may be surprised to know that Friend of the Court operations have been yielding upwards of $20 million annually to county governments in recent years -- the bulk of this in so-called incentive funds under the Federal Child Support Program. The Michigan system is widely studied and copied around the country. A sizeable fraction of this income has been devoted to general government purposes unrelated to Friend of the Court office functions.

Law Library

Now I must say a few words about the State Law Library. Many persons think of a library as simply a cultural adornment of society, a place for intellectual amusement. But for a court, a first class library is an absolutely vital professional tool, as indispensable as the scalpel to a surgeon, the transit to a surveyor. In recognition of its importance, Michigan's once splendid law library, until about 1970, was housed in the west wing of this Capitol, occupying second and third floor space now devoted to legislative offices. The Law library, like the State Library of which it is a part, is suffering from neglect. It desperately needs more staff, more space, more equipment, more books, more money and more administrative autonomy. I urge the Legislature to provide for it properly -- whether in its present organizational setting or under the approach now represented by Senate Bill 200.

In parting, I observe that it is a healthy sign for the vitality of our form of government that this Legislature has seen fit to invite the head of the judicial branch to discuss its problems in this format.

This tradition symbolizes the proposition on which our nation was founded, of cooperation and the separateness but interdependence of the three branches whose duty it is to serve the interests of the citizenry.

Let us all toil cooperatively -- we judges, you legislators and leaders of the executive branch -- to elevate the caliber of Michigan justice to a level of quality that is deserved by our common employers, the more than nine million people of the state.

The Court completed 1,713 cases in the year ending 6/30/81, the sixth successive all-time record. That is 288% more than were completed 12 years ago or, stated another way, it is 3.88 times as many as were completed then.

Notwithstanding this extraordinary and sustained record of achievement the number of cases pending (under consideration but not completed) is 4.65% times as many as 12 years ago because new cases filed have increased by numbers greater than the completions.

CASES COMPLETED = Court work completed, jurisdiction relinquished.

COMPLETED BY OPINIONS = Self-explanatory.

FINAL ORDERS WITHOUT OPINIONS. These are orders issued in response to an application for leave to appeal, pursuant to GCR 1963, 852.2(4)(g) or 853.2(4), reversing, reversing in part, affirming, remanding for specific proceedings, etc., without formal opinion but with specific reasons stated in the order, for the action taken. There is no oral argument in these cases. This is a more summary procedure than the leave granted process which, because it involves printed briefs, oral arguments and formal opinions, takes approximately 20 months longer to complete a case.

DENIALS OF LEAVE TO APPEAL. In general an appeal as of right to the Court of Appeals exists with regard to final judgments of the lower courts. Const 1963, Art IV, § 4, and GCR 1963, 852.1 and 853.1 vest the Supreme Court with the discretion to deny a further appeal.

DISMISSALS & WITHDRAWALS. Of the few cases in this category, most are dismissed or withdrawn by the action and consent of both parties. About ten percent of these few cases are dismissed by the Court on motion charging failure to diligently pursue the appeal.

*GRANTS. Orders granting leave to appeal do not complete Court action on a case. Therefore, they are not included as case completions. The number of the orders granting leave to appeal each year is compared, as a percentage, to the totals of columns B, C and D, not including A. Thus the percentage accurately reflects the proportion of grants made to applications for leave to appeal acted upon.

III TYPES OF CASES FILED WITH THE SUPREME COURT

Of the 1,949 cases filed with the Supreme Court last year, 1,864 or 96% were applications for leave to appeal from decisions made by the Court of Appeals, or prisoners' requests for relief from decisions of that Court, which are considered in much the same manner as applications for leave to appeal. The other 85 cases filed last year, 4% of the total, consisted of the following kinds of actions: 28 applications for leave to appeal prior to decision by the Court of Appeals; 9 applications for leave to appeal from Attorney Discipline Board decisions; 36 complaints for mandamus or superintending control relative to Grievance Board or Board of Law Examiner matters; 6 Judicial Tenure Commission cases; 1 JTC request for interim suspension; 1 JTC request for appointment of a master; 4 requests from federal courts to certify questions to this Court. This ratio, 96% applications for leave to appeal after decision by the Court of Appeals and 4% all other categories, is the same as the last 2 years and has been relatively constant since the inception of the Court of Appeals in 1965.

Of the 1,949 cases filed, 1,077 or 55% were criminal cases and 872 or 45% were civil cases. Since the inception of the Court of Appeals in 1965 the ratio of criminal and civil cases, preponderating on either side, has stayed within the limits of 6 to 4.

IV MOTIONS AND OTHER SEPARATE ORDERS

With the exception of the column concerning grants in the table in section II, all of the foregoing concerns case completions and final orders of the Court issued during the 12 month period ending 6/30/81.

MOTIONS. During the same period the Court issued 569 separate additional orders on motion matters as follows: 98 orders granting leave to appeal; 19 orders on motions for rehearing; 113 orders on motions for reconsideration; 6 corrective orders issued on the Court's own motions; 66 orders holding cases in abeyance, issued on the Court's own motions; 78 miscellaneous orders on motions for bail, for a stay of proceedings, to tax or not tax costs, etc.; 123 orders issued by the Chief Justice, here commonly called "housekeeping orders", e.g., orders on motions to extend the time for filing briefs, to place on or withdraw a case from a session calendar, or for oral argument, etc., and 66 orders on motions for admission to the bar. In addition to these 569 separate orders on motions there are now each year over 1,000 motions acted upon by the Court where those actions are included within the final order issued which completes the Court's work on the case.

During this same period 79 judgment orders on opinions were issued.

V ADMINISTRATIVE WORK

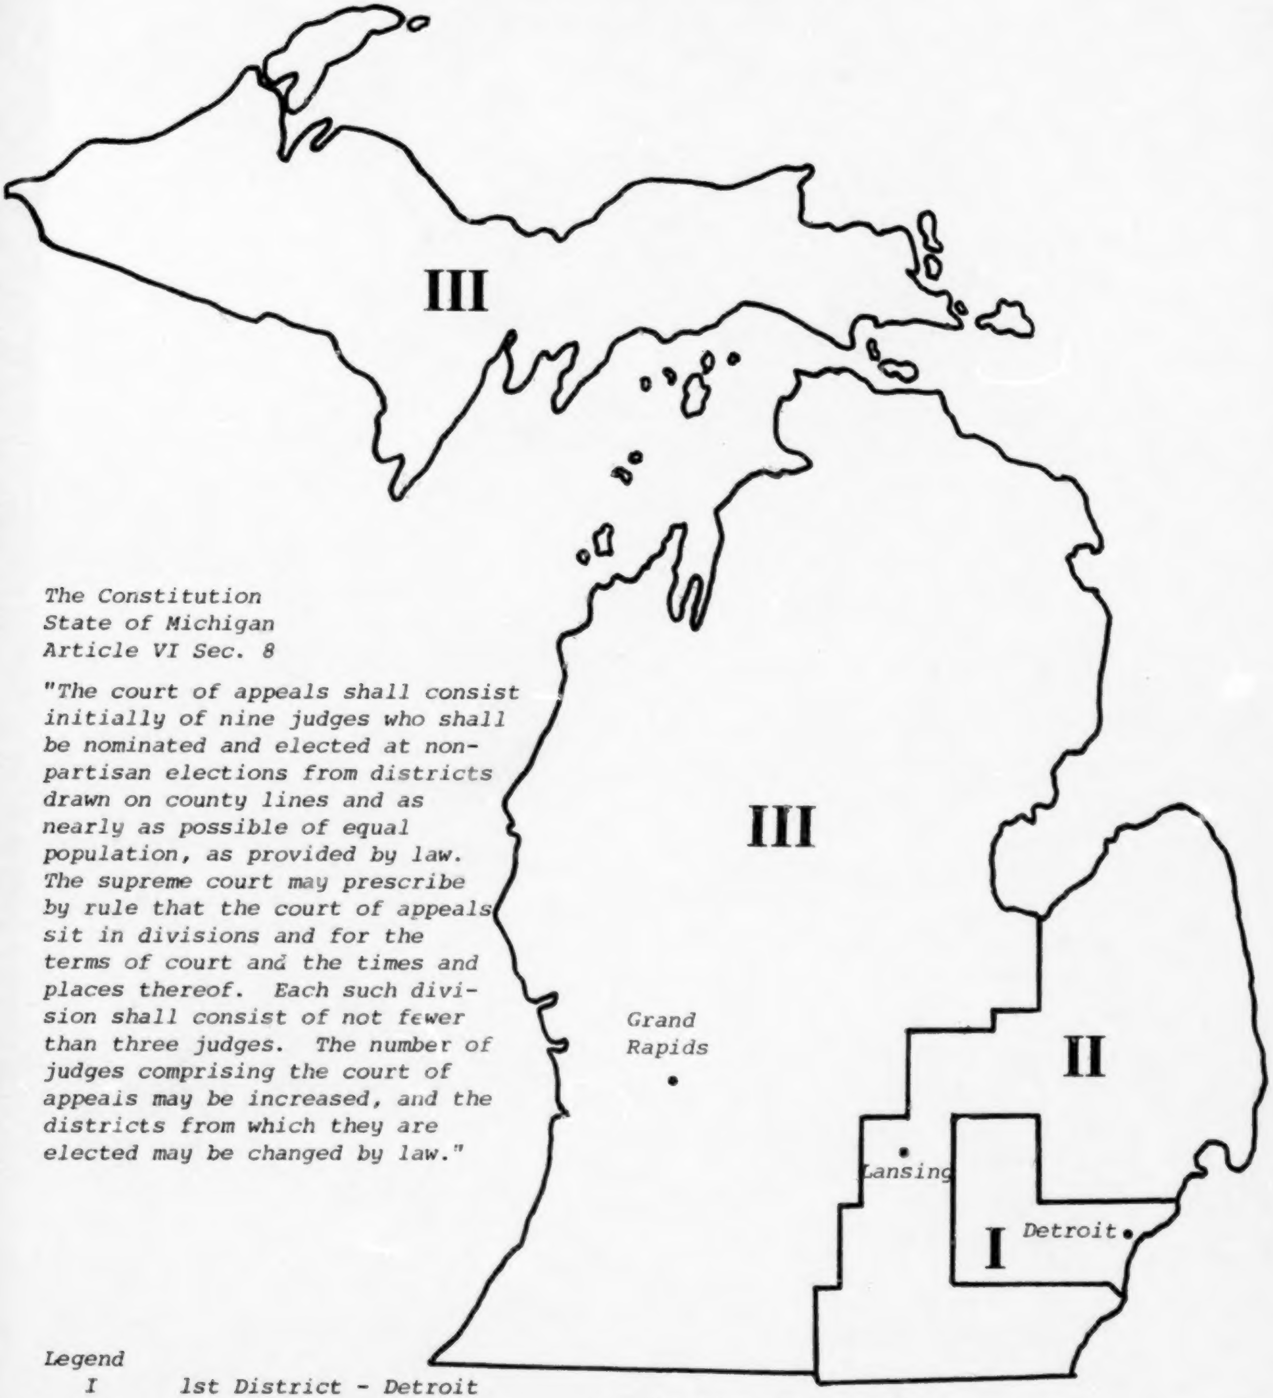
The Court's administrative workload has also more than tripled in the last 13 years. This work stems largely from the Court's responsibility for superintending the judicial system. During the 12 months covered by this report the Court met 19 times in administrative sessions and considered and acted upon 118 agenda items such as Rules changes, sentence review guidelines, fees for appointed attorneys, requirements for admission to the bar without examination, contingency fees, standards for disqualification of judges, procedures and standards for assignment of appellate counsel, public access to court records, foster care review boards, appointments to the various Boards, Commissions and Committees for which the Court has the responsibility to make appointments, fee schedules, the Law Library, disciplinary rules for lawyers and Wayne County Court Reorganization. Analytical and factual reports, some very extensive including input solicited from the bench, bar, interested public officials and the public, are prepared by the Court Commissioners office for the Court and are considered beforehand and then acted upon during administrative sessions. In addition to this more formal method of handling administrative matters, many matters are acted upon, of necessity informally, sometimes by telephone conference.

In 1969 only 15 formal administrative orders were issued. In the 12 months here reported on 39 were issued and, over the last 4 years an average of 55 formal administrative orders have been issued per year.

VI CONCLUSION

The Court has searched for every conceivable means to cope with the problems stemming from the almost fourfold increase in its case and administrative workloads. It has enlarged its staff; utilized the most efficient equipment; and adopted procedures to complete more cases and to complete them sooner. In the year ended 6/30/81 the Court issued 2,400 orders; 1,713 final orders and 687 orders on motions and administrative matters. With trivial exceptions, each Justice must act upon each order. Thus in the year ended 6/30/81, each Justice had to reach a decision about and participate in the issuance, on average, of more than 9 orders per day every weekday of the year. The Court will continue to seek greater efficiency in its operation, to achieve greater production without a reduction of the quality of the decisions made, but it is believed that the Court is at or close to the limit of its capacity.

COURT OF APPEALS



The Constitution
State of Michigan
Article VI Sec. 8

"The court of appeals shall consist initially of nine judges who shall be nominated and elected at non-partisan elections from districts drawn on county lines and as nearly as possible of equal population, as provided by law. The supreme court may prescribe by rule that the court of appeals sit in divisions and for the terms of court and the times and places thereof. Each such division shall consist of not fewer than three judges. The number of judges comprising the court of appeals may be increased, and the districts from which they are elected may be changed by law."

ANNUAL REPORT

COURT OF APPEALS

(Chief Clerk Ronald L. Dzierbicki, of the Court of Appeals reports that the statistics for calendar years 1978 and 1979 are not verifiable and are expected to change when a final audit is possible. At the beginning of the fourth quarter of 1978, the Court of Appeals converted all records from a manual to an automated system. Because of other priorities, the Chief Clerk said it has been impossible to fully implement and verify the statistical module on the computer system. As a result, certain programming and data entry errors have not been eliminated--for example, the program does not count consolidated cases, and certain coded orders have not been programmed to close out an appeal. Therefore, the statistics presented here represent minimum figures which can be expected to increase when the statistical module is complete.)

Assignment of Judges

ASSIGNMENT OF JUDGES

The Michigan Constitution, 1963, Art. VI, Sec. 23 and RJA Sec. 225, 226, 306, 825 and 8212, as amended, authorize assignment of judges from one court to another either by direct order of the Supreme Court or through the State Court Administrator.

Judicial vacancies occur during the year due to retirement, death or serious illness which require an assignment to fill the vacancy on a temporary basis. Often it is necessary to provide temporary assistance to a court which is experiencing a sudden increase in trial work, or a series of lengthy trials. Assignments are also made when a court is behind in its work, or when a case requires disqualification of a particular judge or an entire bench.

In most instances, assignments to the Court of Appeals or the Circuit, District or Probate Courts are made without regard to whether the assigned judge regularly sits on that court. For example, it is not unusual for a Probate Judge to be assigned to a Circuit Court, District to Circuit, Circuit to Court of Appeals, etc. This flexibility provides more efficient use of the most precious commodity in court administration: judge time.

Assignments of retired or former judges to all courts except the probate court require expenditure of state funds for payment of the state portion of the assigned judge's compensation and expenses. The balance of the assigned judge's compensation is the responsibility of local governmental units and is paid from local funds.

Assignments of incumbent "sitting" judges to any court, and assignments of retired or former judges to the probate courts, are wholly funded under the law by the local governmental units and thus require no state expenditure.

Michigan Judicial Tenure Commission

ANNUAL REPORT

Michigan Judicial Tenure Commission

COMMISSION PURPOSE

The Judicial Tenure Commission was created by constitutional amendment in 1968, (Mich Const, Art VI, Sec 30) in response to a need for a less cumbersome method than impeachment for the removal of unfit judges. The electorate was also satisfied that a more effective procedure was required to discipline and correct the conduct of judges who, while not engaging in activity warranting removal, nevertheless adversely effected the proper administration of justice and the essential confidence it must generate.

The Commission by its presence and public activity contributes to better public understanding of the judicial process and better judicial performance. Through the confidentiality of its private investigations and deliberations, minor grievances can be reviewed and remedied without media attention.

The Commission is comprised of nine members who serve, without pay, for terms of three years. The Commission employs an Executive Director and nine permanent or part-time staff members to perform its required work. Staff members investigate all grievances and act as examiners in presenting formal complaints at Commission hearings.

COMMISSION PROCEDURE

The Commission has the authority to review written grievances which allege misconduct or disability and, after a preliminary investigation of the facts and circumstances, can then determine whether a formal complaint should be filed against a judge. The Commission is further empowered to conduct a public hearing before itself or an appointed Master. Thereafter, the Commission may recommend to the Supreme Court, where appropriate, that a judge be either censured, suspended with or without salary, retired or removed from office.

A judge shall be found guilty of misconduct if:

(a) The judge is convicted of a felony.

(b) The judge persistently fails to perform judicial duties.

(c) The judge is habitually intemperate by appearing in court under the influence of alcohol.

(d) The judge's conduct is clearly prejudicial to the administration of justice.

(e) The judge is persistently incompetent or neglectful in the performance of his judicial duties.

Additionally, a judge shall be removable from office for physical or mental disability which prevents the performance of his duties for a substantial period of time.

It is important to clarify that the Commission does not function as an appellate court to review judicial decisions for factual or legal errors. Further, it does not have the power to investigate or discipline attorneys, prosecutors or police officers. It may not give legal advice to citizens or represent clients, although it will refer persons to other agencies where appropriate. The Commission's jurisdiction is limited to misconduct, as defined by the Code of Judicial Conduct and the Code of Professional Responsibility.

The Constitution and Court Rules safeguard the confidentiality of all grievances and their investigation except as to the parties involved.

Prior to the filing of a formal complaint, neither Commissioner nor staff member may disclose the existence or contents of an investigation. An exception may occur when, in the public interest, the Commission may issue a public statement confirming a pending investigation, or a completed investigation resulting in insufficient evidence for filing a complaint.

After a formal complaint is filed, it is a matter of public record and all subsequent proceedings are conducted in open public hearings.

The Commission must determine initially whether a grievance appears to be valid and well-founded and alleges facts indicating misconduct or disability. This is accomplished through preliminary inquiry by the staff. Many grievances are dismissed at this stage as without sufficient merit.

If the grievance proves to have substance, the judge under investigation receives notice of the allegations and is given a reasonable opportunity to respond. Thereafter, the Commission must consider the judge's reply and determine whether or not to bring formal charges by the filing of a formal complaint.

On grievances of a relatively minor nature, the Commission may dismiss the grievance and privately caution a judge with respect to his conduct, or, under appropriate circumstances, enter a recommendation of private censure with the Supreme Court. An order of private censure must be kept secret and confidential.

If, as a result of a formal hearing, misconduct is established, the Commission must submit its own decision regarding the case and recommend suitable discipline to the Supreme Court. Upon a review of the entire record, the Court may accept, reject or modify the recommendation of the Commission.

ANNUAL REPORT

Summary of Grievances Considered

The information contained in this Report covers the period from July 1, 1980, to June 30, 1981.

Since its inception, the Commission has opened 1,966 files concerning grievances against judicial officers, 318 of which were received during the past year. During the current reporting year, 349 grievances reached final disposition, resulting in a year-end caseload of 72 pending grievances.

Analysis of Data:

Some brief conclusions can be drawn upon an examination of the above grievance data:

(1) 70 to 80% of all grievances are either obviously unfounded or frivolous on their face or prove so after preliminary inquiry. The usual grievance of this type comes from a dissatisfied litigant who has accused the judge of partiality or disregard of the law in the case, but who points to no substantiating evidence. Such person is advised of the proper appellate remedy.

(2) Numerous grievances are received from litigants in divorce or custody matters, from criminal defendants, and from parties to small claims actions. A common assertion made is that the judge failed to give the parties a fair hearing in the case. Judges might profitably reexamine their attitude and demeanor toward lawyers and litigants and, where necessary, take more care to arrive at sound judgments, make their decisions and explain the reasons for their rulings with as little display of personal feeling as possible.

(3) It should be noted that the Commission has determined that it lacks jurisdiction to review grievances against administrative law judges or administrative hearing officers since they are civil servants employed within the executive branch of government and not judicial officers as defined in General Court Rule 932.

Michigan Attorney Grievance Commission

ANNUAL REPORT

State of Michigan

Attorney Grievance Commission

October 1, 1980 - September 30, 1981

The Michigan Attorney Grievance Commission was created by the Supreme Court, effective October 1, 1978. Along with the simultaneously created Attorney Discipline Board, the Commission succeeded the State Bar Grievance Board, which thereby expired. The Commission, pursuant to GCR 1963, 957.1, is the prosecution arm of the Supreme Court for the discharge of its constitutional responsibility to supervise and discipline Michigan attorneys.

The Attorney Grievance Commission consists of seven persons who serve without compensation and are appointed as follows:

Three lawyers appointed by the Supreme Court; two public members appointed by the Supreme Court; two lawyers appointed by the Board of Commissioners of the State Bar of Michigan.

COMMISSION PROCEDURE

Chapter 95 of the General Court Rules governs the conduct of attorney disciplinary proceedings.

Grievances filed against attorneys are denominated "requests for investigation". Any person may file a request for investigation with the Grievance Administrator and the Grievance Administrator may file his own request for investigation where necessary. The filing of a request for investigation initiates the grievance process.

Following the filing of a request for investigation, the Grievance Administrator must determine whether there exists a prima facie allegation of professional misconduct, i.e. a violation of General Court Rule 953. The Grievance Administrator may reject the request for investigation, or he may conduct an investigation. Upon conclusion of the investigation, the Administrator recommends to the Commission that (1) the matter should be closed as there is not provable evidence of professional misconduct sufficient to sustain the burden of proof at a disciplinary proceeding, or (2) that authorization should be granted for the issuance of a formal complaint.

In the Commission's last fiscal year, October 1, 1980 to September 30, 1981, 3015 requests for investigation were filed, as opposed to 3231 for the previous year. This represents a continuation of receipt of grievances in excess of 3000 which first occurred in the 1979-1980 fiscal year. The rate of intake is still far in excess of that which was experienced in previous years. In the fiscal year 1978-1979, for example, 2578 grievances were filed.

Of the 3015 grievances received, 1889 were rejected by the Grievance Administrator pursuant to GCR 1963, 961.3, 665 were closed by the Commission pursuant to GCR 1963, 963.1(2), 229 were closed administratively, 95 resulted in confidential admonishments, and 194 were authorized by the Commission for formal proceedings. There was a decrease in the pending investigative caseload from 544 at the beginning of the period to 487 as of September 30, 1981. The investigative caseload is virtually current, with an average turnover time from receipt of a request for investigation to investigatory disposition of 90 days. Representing only 16.15% of the total annual intake, the pending investigative caseload is at an acceptably manageable level.

Assisting the full-time professional staff in the investigation function are some 200 volunteer investigators. The volunteer investigators are members of the State Bar of Michigan who perform pro bono on behalf of the Commission, and who are reimbursed only for actual out-of-pocket expenses. Approximately 10% of the formal investigations are referred to the volunteer investigators.

In prosecuting formal complaints before Hearing Panels of the Attorney Discipline Board (the Supreme Court's adjudicative agency for attorney discipline) the Administrator and his professional staff are assisted by some 150 volunteer counsel, who, like the volunteer investigators, are members of the State Bar of Michigan who donate their services to the Commission. Approximately 15% of the litigated matters are referred to volunteer counsel.

LITIGATION

Upon authorization by the members of the Commission, the Grievance Administrator causes a complaint to be prepared and filed with the Attorney Discipline Board. The Grievance Administrator is the party-petitioner to every formal charge of misconduct.

Hearings on charges of misconduct are held before three-lawyer hearing panels of the Attorney Discipline Board. The hearings are open to the public. The Grievance Administrator is required to prove his case by a preponderance of the evidence and the respondent may retain counsel, cross examine witnesses proferred by the Administrator, and present evidence in his own behalf. The practice and procedure employed in non-jury civil cases are applicable to disciplinary proceedings as are the Michigan Rules of Evidence.

Upon conclusion of the hearings, if the panel finds that the Administrator has failed to prove misconduct by a preponderance of the evidence, the case against the respondent must be dismissed. If the panel concludes that professional misconduct has been proven by a preponderance of the evidence, the panel must enter an order of discipline, either reprimanding, suspending or disbarring the respondent. A suspension or disbarment disqualifies the respondent from the practice of law, whereas a reprimand is in the nature of a public censure. All discipline in Michigan is a matter of public record. (The admonishment issued by the Commission is confidential and is an administrative warning not constituting discipline).

Any party may appeal an order of a hearing panel as of right to the Attorney Discipline Board, and may seek leave to appeal to the Supreme Court from an order of the Attorney Discipline Board.

The numbers of attorneys disciplined, which represents a record, continues to follow a pattern of increase.

FUNDING

The expenses of the Attorney Grievance Commission for the fiscal year, October 1, 1980 - September 30, 1981 as certified by the State Bar were $485,483.00.

Pursuant to General Court Rule 954, the entire expenses of the Commission were paid by the State Bar of Michigan. No public tax dollars were employed in the funding of the Commission's operations.
